A charming village house in a rural location. The property has a private sunny garden to the rear and parking space to the front. Inside the property there is a lounge with separate dining room and kitchen and also storage space. The second floor has two good spacious, well lit bedrooms, a complete bathroom and an extra room suitable as a third bedroom or office space etc. The house is cool in the summer and warm in the winter and has an authentic cottage feel with wooden beams and doors. Good access roads with views of the surrounding countryside with the nearest town being Arboleas.
