A great two storey house for sale in the peaceful village of Campillo de Purchena here in the north of Almeria Province. The property is in excellent condition, it is furnished to enter to live and has new electrics, a new kitchen and new windows in several rooms. The ground floor comprises of lounge with log burner, double bedroom, new modern kitchen and a spacious bathroom with bath. Attached to the house is a large garage with a cave area incorporated and ideal for extra storage.

Upstairs there are three double bedrooms, another spacious bathroom a lounge area and another room currently used for storage. This room has a waterpoint so could easily be converted into a breakfast room with small kitchen as the room leads out to a nice terrace with views.

Located in the centre of the village this is a property to enjoy a quiet rural lifestyle. The town of Oria is a ten minute drive by car and there you can find all the services such as Health Centre, Schools Supermarkets, Banks, Bars etc
