€250,000

A beautiful modern home for sale in a delightful setting with fabulous all round views for as far as the eye can see. Tastefully decorated throughout with the best materials, the property comprises of four bedrooms, a spacious bathroom with shower area, lounge with fireplace, kitchen with impressive dining table and a separate barbecue area with large storage room. Outside there is a large garden area offering great views and a wonderful unique feature created by using old railway equipment and tracks. All furniture is included in the sale. The property has no electricity therefore it would be necessary to install solar panels to provide power. Located in an area north of Huerca-Overa which is around twenty five minutes drive away and in the other direction on the motorway is the city of Lorca and the airports of Murcia and Alicante.
